Government bonds, unchanged; other bonds, steady.

After the first hour the market showed a slightly firmer tone. Many recoverles were made from early losses, and they were better maintained than they have been in the trading Immediately after the opening. St. Paul was well above 154 Union Pacific ranged around 179%, and Amalgamated, on what was considered inside buying after this moving up from 116% to 166%, was fairly well held at the latter price.

There was continued drive at Erie by bear traders. Some of the large commission houses said they had sold the stock as a hedge against holdings of convertible bonds. The volume of business all through the forenoon was small. Erie 1st pf

COTTON MARKET PRICES SHOW LITTLE CHANGE

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The local cotton market opened about as expected on the firmer cables and reflected also a feeling that the receipts would probably decrease, especially in the Atlantic States. There was, however, a pretty strong bear interest in the market and selling from this quarter prevented any decided rise in the first ten minutes. January, 9.15@6.20; March, 9.32@9.33; May, 9.47@9.48; July 9.54@9.55; August, 9.40 asked.
